English Harbour Arts Association proudly sponsors a live and silent auction of exciting original works by North American artists to develop and promote the arts programs of the English Harbour Arts Centre. This year's auction proceeds will raise funds for the A-Maze-ing project, a proposal to build the world's first dry stone maze, located in English Harbour.

More than 70 works of art will be auctioned on May 04, 2014. The auction will be held in an historic barn on the Ugolini family farm in Alton about 80km/1hr. from Toronto. Ample free parking on site. Licensed bar, food and live music performed by Shore Thing. $10.00 donation. Children under 12 free. Chance to WIN accommodations in English Harbour for 7 days.

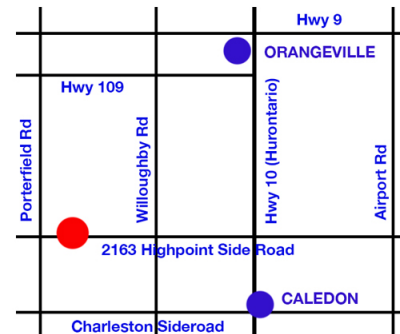

The auction includes works by Gerry Squires, Lucille Weber, Shannon Craig, Ron Bolt, Scott Goudy and many others.

Sunday May 04, 1-5pm. (Live Auction starts at 3pm)
